2006 Snow Survey Schedule

The Department of Environmental Services, Dam Bureau (DES) anticipates following the schedule outlined below for the current snow year. For the most part, the sampling schedule follows the one administered by the US Army Corp of Engineers. Data seekers are encouraged to check DES's snow sampling web page at http://www.des.state.nh.us/RTi_Home/snow_sampling_stations.asp for results, which are generally posted within 48 hours of the sampling date:
